I have two strings, I want to get their matching strings from my second list and add it to a new list that I created, I did this but it is not working. I want to get the matching strings from the first list. var predefinedWords = ["word1", "word2", "word3", "word4"]; var nextWords = new List(); var w = word.Split(' '); foreach (string s in w) { var wordMatches = predefinedWords.Where(p => p == s); if (wordMatches.Any()) { nextWords.Add(wordMatches); } } var next = new List(); foreach (var w in nextWords) { next.Add(w); } Console.WriteLine(next); A: If you're just trying to test a list of predefined words against a list of words in the string to see if they match
